

Rosen Institute

Ethical Pledge

Rosen Method Bodywork practitioners and Rosen Method Movement teachers pledge to uphold these standards in relationship to their work with bodywork clients and movement students. For more information regarding the full Rosen Institute Ethics, Scope of Practice, and Code of Conduct document, please contact the Rosen Institute: info@roseninstitute.net

Each Rosen Method professional:

- Respects the integrity and autonomy of the client or the movement student.
- Respects the client's or movement student's dignity and differences.
- Protects confidentiality and privacy.
- Keeps skills and proficiencies up to date.
- Works ethically and lawfully.
- Protects the client or movement student from exploitation or abuse.
- Always works for the benefit of the client's or movement student's health and well-being.
- Works within his or her competency and training.
- Maintains physical and psychological health.
- Presents and communicates information and marketing honestly and accurately.